Funding Projects for a Better Future

Please note that the following are not auction items but funding projects for the Mansion where all paddle donations are accepted.

- 1) HELP US BRING A CLASSROOM TO THE MUSEUM: Each classroom visit costs the LMMM $350 ($550 with bus).

Every year, thousands of students visit the Mansion. Help us bring more classes to this National Historic Landmark so that our youth can learn about the Civil War and 19th-century history, art, and technology. Your donation will help us boost education in our communities.

Open to Multiple Donations

- 2) HELP US SPONSOR OUR INTERNSHIP PROGRAM: Each intern costs the LMMM $1,500.

Our interns have been accepted at Yale, UConn, George Washington University. Every year we receive many requests for internships from our local high schools and colleges. The LMMM's staff and volunteer educators provide educational guidance and training in museum administration to help our interns acquire important skills for the future. Help us continue to bring interns to LMMM and contribute to the productivity and future of our youth.

3) LIBRARY GAS LIGHTS RESTORATION PROJECT

$4,500

Help fund the conservation/restoration of a pair of three-arm bronze gas sconces each with an elaborately cast back plate. Originally in the Library, these lights were installed by the Mathews family in 1876 and matched their gasolier. The restored finish will be brass with silver shade rings and silvered filigreed drop finials. They will be fitted with reproduction etched glass shades to match the 2010-conserved gasolier.
