14. A Perfect Summer Vacation Retreat In Coastal Maine

Enjoy a week on a 1,300-acre lake: swimming, boating, kayaking, fishing, paddle-boarding. This 3 building mini-compound sits on the water's edge and sleeps 8 guests. The camp is 6 miles from Lincolnville Beach or the village of Camden where shopping and restaurants are plenty. The camps include: gas grill, two kayaks, two SUPs, large dock, swimming rock, picnic table, and plenty of Adirondack chairs.

The "Bed" has a large Master Bedroom (King) with loft, guestroom (two twins) and the best view from the sleeping porch daybed. The "Bed" also includes a shared bath and full laundry.

The views from the "Breakfast" kitchen and great room feel like you're living on the water with a dining area, large kitchen island and lots of games and puzzles – and a TV, if you must. Mudroom, bathroom, and sleeping loft round out this building.

The newest addition to the compound, "The Spa" with its Asian flair was built for serenity and solitude. The "Spa" includes a luxurious bathroom with 6-person sauna, oversized soaking tub, large shower and plenty of room. The fireplace main room is a perfect place to take a nap or pull down the Murphy bed (queen) for a quiet night sleep away from the crowd.
